Respectful Workplace

- 9.08 Where conflict as set forth in Article 9.07 arises that does not involve harassment on a prohibited ground, the Employer shall take appropriate action to resolve such conflicts with the cooperation of the Union.
- 9.09 In order to ensure harmonious relations within the workplace, the parties agree that “unacceptable behaviour” which is not trivial and which results in a denial of an employee’s dignity and respect, threatens to affect the

- 9.13 Where possible an employee who considers this Article is being violated should attempt to resolve the matter by discussing the behaviour which is considered to be harassing or unacceptable with the alleged offender and making it clear that the behaviour is unwelcome. The parties agree that both the complainant and the alleged offender may have Union representation throughout the complaint process. The results of the investigation of a complaint under this Article will be communicated to the complainant, the alleged offender and the Union. It is expected that the report of the HR Leader or designate regarding the results of the investigation of a complaint under this Article will be communicated within twenty (20) days of the commencement of the investigation. No complaint may be filed under both the harassment provisions and the respectful workplace provisions.
- 9.15 The good faith exercise of management rights as set forth in Article 3 shall not constitute harassment or “unacceptable behaviour”.

ARTICLE 10 - SENIORITY

- 10.01 Seniority, as referred to in this Agreement, shall mean the length of continuous service with the Employer since the date of his last hiring by the Employer. A new employee shall be subject to a probationary period as set forth in Article 11.04. Upon successful completion of the probationary period, the employee will be credited with seniority from the date of hire. It is agreed that work on any part of a day counts as a day worked for the purpose of completion of the probationary period.

- (a) quits;

Notice of recall may be by telephone, e-mail, or facsimile transmission and may be confirmed by registered mail to the employee's last address registered with the Employer. If notice is sent by registered mail, it shall be deemed to have been received on the second day following registration;

- (g) is otherwise absent from work without leave of the Employer for a period in excess of one (1) month, unless a reason satisfactory to the Employer is given.

ARTICLE 11 - RECRUITMENT PROCESS

- 11.01 Where a permanent position within the bargaining unit becomes vacant, and if the Employer declares such a vacancy, it will be posted. The parties recognize that preference in hiring will be given to individuals of Aboriginal ancestry. The posting shall indicate the qualifications required by the Employer and will give notice that the position is a classification within the bargaining unit.
- 11.02 Such vacancies shall be posted for a period of ten (10) calendar days and employees bidding on job vacancies must make written application to the Human Resources Department not later than the tenth (10th) day of posting.
- 11.03 Vacancies caused by absence due to illness, accident, leaves of absence and operational emergencies which are not expected to exceed twelve (12) months, will be posted at the discretion of the Employer.
- 11.04 (a) New employees shall be subject to a probationary period of six (6) months, which may be extended at the discretion of the Employer for a further six (6) months. During the probation period the employee's performance in the job will be discussed at approximately three (3) month intervals. If corrective action is required, the Employer may prepare a plan to address the specific circumstances.
- (b) The Employer may dismiss a probationary employee for any reason, consistent with good faith. No grievance regarding the discharge of an employee who has not attained seniority shall be submitted to arbitration.
- (c) Accumulation of service for the purpose of calculating the completion of the probationary period shall be frozen as of the commencement of a leave for any reason which continues for a period of one (1) month or more.

11.05 The Employer shall consider applicants within the bargaining unit for whom a successful bid would result in a promotion or transfer (as defined herein) to a higher or equally rated classification. In cases of promotion or transfer, the following factors shall be considered:

(a) Skill, ability, performance, qualifications and experience;

(b) Seniority.

When the factors in clause (a) are relatively equal in the opinion of the Employer then seniority shall govern.

11.06 Successful applicants shall be subject to a trial period of forty-five (45) days during which the employee may elect to return to his former classification of service or may be returned to his former classification of service by the Employer if in the opinion of the Employer he is not performing satisfactorily in the new position.

11.07 If a vacancy has not been filled on the foregoing basis, the Employer may fill the vacancy at its discretion.

11.08 The Employer may assign any individual to any vacancy on a temporary basis until the position is filled. Such assignment will not normally exceed three (3) months.

11.09 The Employer may engage individuals under a limited term contract to meet specific operational needs providing such engagement does not displace a permanent employee or delay the filling of a permanent vacancy.

ARTICLE 12 - GENERAL SALARY PROVISION

12.01 Employees will be paid in accordance with the salary scale applicable to the classification to which they are engaged. The placement of a new employee on the salary scale will be at the discretion of the Employer based on its assessment of the factors set forth in Article 11.05(a).

12.02 Basic salaries set out in Article 12 are minimum basic salaries. It is agreed that the Employer may continue its policy of granting discretionary increases above the scale of minimums.

12.03 Employees shall progress annually on the salary scale as of the employees' anniversary or promotion date as the case may be.

12.04 Employees who are promoted to a higher paid classification will move to the first step on the new salary scale which provides an increase of at least three and one-half (3.5%) percent.

12.05 There shall be no reduction in an employee's salary unless the employee voluntarily seeks a position in a lower classification or accepts a lower classification under the terms of Article 17 - Layoff and Recall.

ARTICLE 13 TEMPORARY UPGRADING

- 13.01 When the Employer temporarily assigns an employee to perform work for at least one (1) day in a higher classification covered by this Agreement, the employee shall be paid an upgrade of ten (10%) percent above the employee's basic rate.
- 13.02 An employee assigned by the Employer to perform work in a higher classification for a period of four (4) weeks or longer will temporarily be promoted to the higher classification and will be compensated at a rate within the salary range which ensures that the employee receives compensation at least ten (10%) percent more than the employee's basic rate so long as such temporary rate does not exceed the maximum for the higher classification.

ARTICLE 14 - HOURS OF WORK AND OVERTIME

- 14.01 Employees will be scheduled to work in accordance with the schedule established by the Employer, from time to time, and will undertake to complete the assignment as directed by the Employer.
- (a) Permanent employees will have their hours posted on a work schedule two (2) weeks in advance and once posted will not normally be changed except in accordance with the provisions of this Agreement. Daily hours posted will be a minimum of three (3).
- 14.02 The normal work week for full-time employees will be thirty-five (35) hours. The normal work day for full-time employees will be seven (7) hours of work scheduled consecutively except for a meal period of one- (1) hour without pay.
- 14.03 There shall be two (2) consecutive days off in each work week (seven (7) day cycle) which shall be referred to as "scheduled days off". The two (2) days off may be in separate work weeks. The Employer shall continue to make every reasonable effort to schedule days off in an equitable manner. However, it is recognized there are specific assignments for which operational requirements may require certain employees to be assigned to work weekends on a regular or recurring basis. If it becomes necessary to schedule work on a scheduled day off, efforts will be made to notify the employee as early as possible. Hours worked on an employee's scheduled day off shall be compensated at the rate of one and one-half (1 1/2) hours for each hour worked and shall be included in the employee's record of overtime credits accumulated and shall not be counted in the Averaging Formula.
- 14.04 Employees will be given overtime credit for hours worked in excess of seventy (70) hours up to eighty (80) hours over two (2) weeks (the "Averaging Formula"). Such overtime work shall be compensated by time in lieu at straight time. Written authorization for any work beyond the seventy (70) hours in the two (2) week cycle must be obtained (where practical in advance) from the appropriate supervisor to receive the overtime credit.

- 14.05 If an employee works hours in excess of eighty (80) hours in the two (2) week cycle, the employee shall be granted time off at the rate of one and one-half (1 ½) hours for each hour worked in excess of eighty (80) hours. Prior written authorization for any work beyond the eighty (80) hours in the two (2) week cycle must be obtained from the appropriate supervisor in order to receive the overtime credit.
- 14.06 Time off in lieu of overtime pay shall be scheduled by the Employer after consultation with the employee. Subject to operational requirements the Employer will endeavour to take into consideration the employee's request regarding the date of time off in lieu. The parties recognize that the intent of this Article is to allow employees to take their overtime as time off instead of being paid. The Employer will exercise its best efforts to meet this intent and schedule such time off. It is understood annual leave has clear priority over an employee's time off in lieu.
- 14.07 It is recognized that operational requirements may necessitate overtime work being performed and employees will work overtime when directed by the Employer. The Employer, however, will endeavour not to require employees to work an excessive amount of overtime. An employee whose accumulated overtime credits exceed seventy (70) hours may elect to be paid such excess existing at any time in cash.
- 14.08 Overtime paid or taken as time off in lieu of overtime pay will be at the basic hourly rate of the employee which is current at the time it is taken. Where the employment of an employee is terminated prior to the end of the two (2) week Averaging Period their hours will be averaged on a pro rata basis and they will receive pay including any overtime pay as appropriate.

- 14.09 The Employer shall keep a record of overtime credits accumulated, paid and taken. Such record shall be made available to the Union upon written request.
- 14.10 The Employer agrees to make every reasonable effort to distribute the assignment of overtime work at a location, equitably among employees engaged in the same type of work at that location.
- 14.11 Employees who believe they have a workload issue which is regular and continuing and which in their opinion requires remedial action, may request a review. The employee and the immediate Supervisor or delegate shall meet to discuss the workload issue with a view to developing a satisfactory resolution. Such resolution may include:
- (a) alternative organization of staff and facilities;
 - (b) changes to the assignment; and
 - (c) other acceptable alternatives.
- 14.12 If after the meeting the employee is not satisfied, the workload issue may be forwarded to the Joint Committee for further review.
- 14.13 The above averaging positions do not apply to temporary or casual employees who are employed for a period of less than three (3) months or for less than five (5) days in a week. In those circumstances overtime will be calculated on a daily basis.

ARTICLE 15 - CALL BACK

15.01 An employee who has completed his regular work day and who has left the premises of the Employer and is then called back to work shall be paid a minimum of four (4) hours at his basic rate. Such hours worked will be credited to the Averaging Formula for overtime (as per Article 14) with the minimum credit of four (4) hours.

ARTICLE 16 - MEAL PERIODS AND COFFEE BREAKS

- 16.01 All employees shall receive a reasonable break during each four (4) hour portion of their work day.
- 16.02 A meal period of one (1) hour without pay shall be granted to all employees of the bargaining unit.
- 16.03 The Employer may schedule the times of breaks and meal periods.
- 16.04 Employees required to work through a meal period will be compensated at the appropriate rate for that time worked.

ARTICLE 17 - LAYOFF AND RECALL

- 17.01 When the layoff of permanent employees is anticipated the Employer shall determine the positions to be eliminated and/or the number of employees to be laid-off. The Employer will endeavour to give the Union as much advance notice of layoffs as is reasonably practicable in order that discussions may be held to provide an orderly and equitable layoff procedure. The Employer will meet with the Union on request to discuss ways of reducing the impact of the layoff on employees. Such ways may include but not be limited to canvassing other vacancies inside or outside the bargaining unit, exploring possible voluntary resignations and identifying available temporary work.
- 17.02 Layoffs will be in inverse order of seniority in the same job classification. Employees with greater seniority may displace employees with less seniority in a lower classification provided they have the demonstrated qualifications (with reasonable orientation) to perform the duties of the more junior employee.
- 17.03 If it becomes necessary for the Employer to lay off employees, the Employer shall provide to the employees affected:
- (a) at least two (2) weeks' notice in writing in advance of the proposed layoff; or
 - (b) basic pay in lieu of notice equal to at least two (2) weeks; or
 - (c) a combination of notice and basic pay in lieu of notice equalling at least two (2) weeks.
- 17.04 During the notice period set forth above in Article 17.03 the employee may have paid time off to pursue internal and external employment opportunities, job search assistance, training or any other activity which could improve his chances of achieving a successful career transition.

17.05 For layoff purposes, the Employer will, unless otherwise determined by mutual agreement of the parties, attempt to place affected employees through the following process:

- (a) an employee to be laid off will be given opportunity to apply for any existing vacancies within the bargaining unit pursuant to the provisions of this Agreement;
- (b) an employee to be laid off will be given consideration for existing vacancies outside the bargaining unit, provided that in the opinion of the Employer it is appropriate to do so;
- (c) if there is more than one qualified candidate for a vacancy, the Employer will select the successful candidate pursuant to the provisions of this Agreement;
- (d) should an employee subject to layoff be placed successfully into a vacancy under this Article, the employee will be subject to a trial period pursuant to the provisions of this Agreement.

17.06 Permanent employees who are subject to layoff will retain their seniority in accordance with the provisions of Article 10 and have recall rights for their seniority retention period.

17.07 When the Employer declares a vacancy, the Employer will recall laid off employees in accordance with the provisions of Article 17.02. Employees accepting a recall other than in their previous job classification shall be paid the basic salary appropriate to the new classification.

- (a) The responsibility of the Employer will be considered fulfilled if the Employer gives notice of recall by telephone, e-mail or facsimile transmission confirmed by registered mail to the employee's last address registered with the Employer. If the laid off employee does not advise the Employer of his intentions within five (5) days of such notice or fails to report for work within seven (7) calendar days from receipt of such notice or at the date specified in the recall notice, whichever is later, the laid off employee will be deemed to have waived the recall and his seniority shall be completely lost and his employment with the Employer shall be terminated.

- (b) A laid off employee who is unable to return to work for a reason satisfactory to the Employer within the timeframe set out in clause (a) above may decline a recall offer retaining his remaining seniority retention period and will be considered for future vacancies.

17.08 Where the employment of an employee who has attained seniority is terminated for reasons other than cause the employee will be entitled to severance pay.

17.09 An employee who receives notice of layoff pursuant to this article will be entitled to severance pay on the following basis:

- (a) After successful completion of the probationary period, two (2) weeks basic salary for each year of completed service. With respect to incomplete years severance pay shall be on a pro rata basis calculated to the nearest month of completed service;
- (b) At the time of layoff the employee may choose to receive severance payment and forfeit recall rights thereby terminating employment with the Employer or to retain recall rights in accordance with Article 10.02(d) in which case the employee shall not be entitled to severance unless he is not recalled within his seniority retention period;
- (c) The employee shall notify the Employer in writing of his intention to elect severance and forfeit recall rights as early as possible but not later than his last day of work;

- (d) Laid-off employees on the recall list may forfeit recall rights at any time by advising the Employer in writing of such request and will thereby be entitled to receipt of severance pay in accordance with this article, and their employment will be terminated.
- (e) An employee who has elected severance and forfeited recall rights is not precluded from being re-employed;
- (f) Notwithstanding clauses (b), (c) and (d) of this Article, Employees may elect to take a portion of their severance entitlement up to a maximum of two (2) weeks without forfeiting recall rights. An Employee who elects under this clause will not later be entitled again to be paid this portion of his severance entitlement.

17.10 Severance pay shall not be subject to check off for Union dues.

17.11 The provisions of Article 17 apply only to permanent employees.

ARTICLE 18 - SHORT TERM LAYOFF

18.01 Short term layoff will occur as follows:

- (a) Layoff resulting from a planned temporary closure of any part of the Employer during all or part of the production cycle;
- (b) Any other temporary layoff which is not anticipated to exceed three (3) months.

18.02 The Employer will endeavour to give as much notice as possible of a short term layoff but not less than two (2) weeks. The employee will be informed of the effective date of layoff and the date of return to work.

18.03 Benefits (subject to the employee paying his share of the premiums) and seniority will be continued for the duration of a short term layoff.

18.04 Employees may use banked time to alleviate the effects of a short term layoff.

18.05 In the event that a short term layoff becomes a long term layoff, the period of the short term layoff will be used in determining entitlement to severance pay as per Article 17 -Layoff and Recall and all provisions of that Article will apply with necessary changes.

18.06 Annual leave and time off in lieu of overtime taken by an employee shall not be considered a short term layoff even if such time is scheduled by the Employer in accordance with the provisions of this Agreement.

ARTICLE 19 - ANNUAL VACATION

- 19.01 The vacation year shall be from September 1 to August 31. Employees who have achieved at least three (3) months service with the Employer as at September 1 shall receive an annual vacation with pay on the basis of one point two-five (1.25) days per month of employment in the year.

- 19.05 If employment is terminated for any reason accrued vacation credits shall be paid in cash.
- 19.06 Employees shall take their vacations at a time determined by the Employer on the basis of operational requirements. Preference shall be given to employees within each classification on the basis of seniority. Employees may be required to use their accumulated vacation time during the production hiatus periods.
- 19.07 Applications for vacation shall be submitted in writing on a form prescribed by the Employer to the appropriate supervisor at least sixty (60) calendar days in advance of the projected vacation. The Employer shall confirm the granting or the denial of such dates within ten (10) days following its receipt.

- 19.08 Where employees require long term notice of vacation schedules to plan and confirm travelling arrangements the Employer will endeavour to confirm the granting or denial of such vacation requests within ten (10) days following its submission.
- 19.09 For good and sufficient reason an employee may request to carry over up to two (2) weeks of annual vacation leave from one year to the next. An employee who wishes to carry over such portion of vacation shall so request in writing to the appropriate supervisor prior to the end of the vacation year.
- 19.10 Employees will see no reduction in their annual leave as a result of putting this Agreement in place.

- 29.03 The Union shall maintain an up to date list of all employees who have been appointed or elected to official positions as Union Representatives and shall advise the Employer in writing upon request.

ARTICLE 30 - GRIEVANCE PROCEDURE

- 30.01 Employer and the Union agree that it is the purpose of the grievance procedure to settle amicably and fairly any complaints and disagreements concerning the employees, the Union and the Employer, without, so far as is possible, resort to arbitration. The provisions of Articles 30 and 31 of this Agreement are the sole and exclusive means of addressing and resolving grievances.
- 30.02 For the purposes of this Agreement a “Grievance” is defined as a difference arising between the Employer and the Union relating to the interpretation, application, administration or alleged violation of the provisions of this Agreement including any question as to whether a matter is arbitrable. At any stage of the grievance procedure an employee is entitled to be represented by a Union Representative.
- 30.03 It is the intent of the parties that complaints of an employee shall be adjusted as quickly as possible and accordingly, should a grievance arise an earnest effort shall be made to settle such difference in the following manner:

Step One

- 30.04 Within ten (10) days after the circumstances giving rise to the grievance have occurred or ought reasonably to have come to the attention of the employee, the grievance shall be submitted in writing, through the Union, signed by the employee, to his immediate supervisor or designate who is excluded from the bargaining unit. The grievance shall identify the nature of the grievance, the remedy sought and will identify the provisions of this Agreement which are alleged to have been violated. The parties may meet to discuss the grievance at a mutually agreed time and place. The supervisor shall reply in writing within ten (10) days after the grievance has been submitted or the meeting held, whichever the case may be.

Step Two

- 30.05 If the grievance cannot be addressed satisfactorily then within ten (10) days after the reply has or should have been received, the employee shall present his grievance in writing to the HR Leader or designate. The HR Leader or designate shall schedule a meeting to be held within ten (10) days from the time such grievance was presented at Step Two, or as mutually agreed. The Union Representative and the grievor may be present at the meeting. The HR Leader or designate may have such assistance as he desires at the meeting. The decision of the Employer will be delivered in writing within ten (10) days after the meeting.

General Provisions

- 30.06 In the event that two (2) or more employees have grievances which are sufficiently common in nature that they may conveniently be dealt with together, such grievances may constitute a group grievance and shall be presented at Step One within ten (10) days after the circumstances giving rise to the grievance have occurred or ought reasonably to have come to the attention of at least one (1) of the grievors.
- 30.07 A “policy grievance” is any grievance which arises directly between the Employer and the Union concerning the interpretation, application, administration or alleged violation of the provisions of this Agreement, and shall be submitted at Step Two within ten (10) days after the circumstances giving rise to the grievance have occurred. A grievance by the Employer shall be filed with the Local Union President or designate.
- 30.08 Each step to be taken under the grievance procedure and any reference to arbitration shall be taken within the time limits set forth in Article 30 or Article 31. Any grievance not submitted by the grievor or advanced by the Union to the next step within the applicable time limit shall be deemed resolved by the Employer’s initial action or reply as the case may be. If a time limited for the giving of a reply is missed, the grievance shall proceed to the next step. A step is deemed to have been taken when notice is given by the party who filed the grievance.

30.09 Any and all the time limits set forth in Article 30 or Article 31 for the taking of action by either party or by an employee may be extended at any time by mutual agreement of the parties in writing.

ARTICLE 31 - ARBITRATION

- 31.01 In the event that a grievance shall not have been settled to the satisfaction of either party, the matter may then be referred to arbitration. If either party wishes to refer a grievance to arbitration the notice of referral to arbitration must be made in writing to the other party within fifteen (15) days from the Step Two decision of the party denying the grievance. The notice shall contain a copy of the grievance and the remedy sought.
- 31.02 Grievances which are referred to arbitration shall be heard by a sole arbitrator in accordance with the list provided below. Each individual on the list shall serve as sole arbitrator in rotation. The date of referral of a grievance to arbitration shall determine the order of rotation. The parties may agree to submit more than one grievance to the same arbitrator.

List of Arbitrators:

1. Michael Werier;
2. Arne Peltz;
3. Diane Jones;

- 31.03 It is agreed that the Union has carriage of all grievances throughout the grievance and arbitration procedure and not any employee or group of employees. All agreements reached under the grievance procedure between representatives of the Employer and the Union will be final and binding upon the Employer, the Union and the affected employees.
- 31.04 No matter may be referred to arbitration which has not properly been carried through all requisite steps of the grievance procedure.

- 31.05 The issue(s) raised in the written grievance shall be presented to the arbitrator and his Award shall be confined to such issue(s). The finding of the arbitrator as to the facts and the interpretation, application, administration or alleged violation of the provisions of this Agreement shall be conclusive and binding on all parties concerned, but in no case shall the arbitrator be authorized to alter, modify or amend any part of this Agreement.
- 31.06 The Employer and the Union shall share equally the expense of the Arbitrator. The costs and allowances to be paid to witnesses shall be paid by the party calling such witness. No costs of arbitration shall be awarded to or against either party.
- 31.07 The parties may, by mutual agreement, engage the services of a mediator in an effort to resolve the grievance and may by written agreement extend the time limits for referral to or hearing of the arbitration. The parties will share equally the expense of the mediator.
- 31.08 The parties may, by written agreement, proceed by way of mediation – arbitration.
- 31.09 As a general rule, arbitrations will be heard in Winnipeg. Where an alternate location is more reasonable having regard to cost and efficiency, it will be considered in good faith by the parties.

ARTICLE 32 - UNION ACCESS TO PREMISES

- 32.01 Representatives of the Union shall have access to the premises of the Employer for the purpose of communicating with employees. Reasonable advance notice to the Head of Human Resources or his designate will be given.

The Employer will provide advance notice of the subject matter to be discussed at the meeting in writing. The employee will be advised of his right to have a union representative from the location attend as an advisor. The local union representative shall attend the meeting should the employee so request.
- 33.04 If the disciplinary action to be taken involves a written warning, suspension, demotion or discharge the Employer shall notify the employee in writing of the action taken and the reasons therefor with a copy to the Human Resources file and to the Union. Such notice to the employee will be given within twenty (20) working days of the decision.
- 33.05 An employee may provide a written reply to any document contained in the human resources file which shall be added to the file.
- 33.06 Only documentation related to disciplinary actions that are implemented shall be placed on the employee's file. With advance notice in writing to the Head of Human Resources or his designate, an employee may have access to the Human Resources file.

33.07 Except for discipline regarding gross misconduct, all documentation related to disciplinary action will be removed from the Human Resources file two (2) years from the date of the infraction provided there are no further infractions.

Dear Terri:

Re: Self-Scheduling Designation

If a type or category of work allows flexibility in arranging hours, days of work, and days off, it is recognized that such an assignment may, at the discretion of the Employer, be designated as self-scheduling. Although there is no set schedule for self-scheduling employees, the guideline to be used is a normal work week consistent with past practice.

Whether an employee is in this designation will be determined by the Employer after discussion between the employee and their manager, who shall evaluate the assignment and determine the scheduling arrangements. It is understood that in order to be considered for such designation, an employee must have a consistent record of high quality, reliability and completion of assignments in a timely and cost effective manner.

Each self-scheduling employee undertakes to arrange their hours, days of work and days off in order to complete their assignment(s) consistent with economy of operation and quality of work.

Each self-scheduled employee shall be required to account for all leave taken in accordance with the current payroll system.

Self-scheduled employees shall have no claim for unused days of Vacation Leave, Statutory Holidays or compensatory leave there, unless alternate written arrangements are made with their manager, cannot carry them over from year to year.

If an assignment will require overtime, the employee shall discuss the prospect in advance with their manager and will come to an agreement regarding the amount of overtime and compensatory time to be taken off in lieu at a later scheduled date. The Hours of Work and Overtime, Call Back and Turnaround provisions of the Collective Agreement do not apply to self-scheduled employees.

It is understood that self-scheduling designation of an employee may be removed if quality, reliability, and completion of assignments is not maintained to a high standard. If self-scheduling designation is removed, the employee shall be informed of the reasons.

It is understood that final approval of self-scheduling designation of any employee shall be at the level of the Chief Executive Officer.
