Public Speaking Skills: A Freelancer's Marketing Tool CBC Freelancers FREE with code CBCFL0505

Studies have found that people fear speaking in public more than death. In addition to sharing fundamentals of public speaking, our Toastmasters International presenter Lisa Caroglanian Dorazio will steer you away from trepidation and towards dynamic speechmaking. Different forms of public presentations will be discussed, including in-person and virtual and there will also be tips on how to monetize your public speaking engagements.

How To Win Government of Canada Contracts CBC Freelancers FREE with code CBCFL0519

The Government of Canada spends about $20 billion yearly on goods and services. Even sole proprietors can sell directly to the feds—no matter where they are in Canada or whether or not they offer bilingual services. Marion Soublière guides you through the basics, like making sure your firm is registered on the mandatory ProServices buying tool, getting security clearance and more. You'll also learn about CanadaBuys, a new site that will eventually allow all levels of government in Canada to buy from federal lists of suppliers.
